

Waiowaka

1901-1905, 1907. Waiowaka School is yet another school around Huia Road in the Rakaunui Area. Waiowaka Road runs off Huia Road

1901	5	Waiowaka	Lang	John		M	£25	$4,221
1902	6	Waiowaka	Eberhard	Hanseny		Female	£30	$4,946
1903	8	Waiowaka	Eberhard	Hanseny		Female	£30	$4,971
1904	8	Waiowaka	Eberhard	Hanseny		Female	£40	$6,624

4th November 1902 John Eberhard was ordered to pay 5s per week towards his wife's support

15th July 1904 A Polling Booth was opened at Waiowaka Schoolhouse

27th January 1905 Wellington Education Board Mrs Eberhard resigns from Wai-o-waka

7th April 1899 The bankrupt, Max Eberhard, medical student, of Rakaunui, did not attend this morning at the time appointed for his first meeting of creditors. Mr. Burgess, for the bankrupt, explained that Eberhard's absence was due to the serious illness of his wife. [Rakanui was in the Huia Road area.]

7th October 1899 Mr. Burgess appeared in support of an application by Max Eberhard for an order of discharge. The debtor, who- had carried on a medical store in Rakanui, stated that since his bankruptcy he had been employed on Cooperative works. He was a married man with three children. Order of discharge granted

1895/3594	Hanseny	Stenberg	Maximilian	Eberhard
1898/13876	Eberhard	Wilhelmine Adolphine		Hausiny	Maximillion -
1896/2495	Eberhard	Clemens Hans		Hanseny	Maximilian

There was a marriage of a Gladys Eberhard in 1923 to Guy Crozier and I presume this is their second daughter whose name is probably recorded as something else on BDM New Zealand

1957/32629	Eberhard	Hanseny	78Y
------------	----------	---------	-----

NZETC

ROYAL HOTEL (M. Eberhard, proprietor), Bunnythorpe. This business has been established for many years and was acquired by the present proprietor in 1906. There is good accommodation for boarders, and the tariff is a moderate one. The wines and spirits are of the best brands, and an excellent table is kept.

MR. MAX EBERHARD, proprietor of the Royal Hotel, was born in the year 1870, in Augsburg, Bavaria, Germany, where he was educated. In 1893 he left Germany for Melbourne, Australia, where for twelve months he filled the position of manager of the German Club. Having heard of better prospects in New Zealand, he left Melbourne in 1894, and came to the Dominion. He proceeded to Palmerston North, then took up some Government land at Pahiatua, and started sheep farming. When first taken up the land was in a very rough state but was subsequently cleared and brought to a good state of cultivation by Mr. Eberhard. Ten years later he sold out his interest and took over the Royal Hotel. In the year 1896 he married Miss Hanseyne Stenberg, daughter of an old settler, and has one son and two daughters